Baseball Magnates Bury the Hatchet and Adjourn.

PASS IMPORTANT MEASURES

Empire Bribery Case Goes to National Commission for Settlement. Major League Clubs Can Carry Twenty-five Players—Day of 'Bus to Ball Park Thing of the Past.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—The clouds of war which have been rolling and rumbling about the meeting of the National League magnates at the Annex cleared away this afternoon and allowed the sunshine of good feeling to come back to its own.

The quarrels between the magnates have all been patched up. President Murphy, of the Cubs, and Ban Johnson, president of the American League, buried the hatchet, and again are friends.

Garry Herrmann, owner of the Cincinnati club, and President Murphy also quit their quarrel. The fuss that has been brewing between the club owners in the league and Harry C. Pulliam, the executive of the circuit, was also straightened out.

The action of the magnates in regard to President Pulliam was a mere business proposition on the face of it, yet underneath it was a nice bit of sentiment. That the members of the league should overlook all their differences with the young president and grant him a leave of absence for an indefinite period, so that he could take a much needed rest, shows that the magnates are not the hard-hearted monsters they are sometimes depicted.

President Pulliam was permitted to go wherever he wishes and stay as long as he desires. His position with the league is firm, and he will continue to draw his full salary.

Up to National Commission. The magnates got down to real business this afternoon after they quit their petty quarrels. The umpire bribery scandal was discussed quite extensively, and it was decided that the national commission was the proper body to handle the case.

A resolution was adopted turning the matter over to the supreme court of baseball, and it is expected that this body will make a thorough investigation of its own accord and publish a report later.

Just what this report will be is a matter for guesswork, but it is almost certain the commission will give out the statements and affidavits filed by Umpires Klem and Johnstone when they reported the matter to President Pulliam.

B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, was called into the meeting of the National magnates, and, speaking as a member of the commission, accepted the job as investigator of the bribery case. It was at this point that the differences between President Murphy, of the Cubs, and the executive of the American League were smoothed over. President Murphy arose before the members of his league and made an apology to President Johnson for "some ill-tempered thing I have said," as the Cub magnate put it. The apology was accepted by President Johnson.

After Murphy and Johnson patched up their differences Garry Herrmann got together with the Cubs president and a compact of peace was formed.

The plans of President Pulliam were not mentioned to-night. His brother arrived this afternoon from Wisconsin, and the brother-in-law and a personal friend from Louisville are expected to arrive tomorrow. It is expected he will go to the home of his sister, in Nashville, where he will rest and try to regain his health.

Ratify Important Change.

The magnates ratified the changes in the national agreement, which provide that major league clubs will not be allowed to carry more than twenty-five players between May 15 and August 20. The limit will be boosted from August 20 to May 15 to thirty-five players. It was also decided that no passes will be issued to players, either of the home team or the visiting club.

The day of the "bus for the visiting club to ride to and from their hotel and the ball park is gone. The magnates decided to delete a provision of $50 for each club that persisted in using the "buses or carriages. The intention of this ruling is to make the players dress at the grounds.

NOTES OF LEAGUE MEETING.

Joe McGinnity, the "Iron Man," is at the meeting. "Germany" Schaeffer has signed as captain of the Tigers.

Jim Jackson has been sold to Baltimore by the Columbus club. Last year he managed Lima, Ohio.

Although most of the critics think the Athletics are weak, Connie Mack is satisfied with the line-up, and says that he will not try to put through any trades.

Bill Armour is after pitchers, and hopes to land Ed Foster, of the Naps. He has a chance to take Foster last season, and is sorry now that he took Pruitt instead.

Charles Comiskey is not the least worried over the demands of Walsh for a big salary. He doesn't figure that the spit-baller will buy all tall buildings on his salary as coach at Yale.

Ed Sullivan had his famous catcher's protector with him, and during the day took orders from a number of the magnates, on the recommendation of Sullivan that it was the best ever.

The Boston club will take twenty-seven men South. First Baseman Danzig is the only man who has not signed a contract.

MANAGER CANTILLON Tells of Wild Conroy

Conroy for Third; Unglaub on Initial Sack.

CLEVELAND WANTED BURNS

Offered Some Ripe, Juicy Lemons for the Left-handed Pitcher—Cliff Blankenship Will Come in Handy, Declares Nationals' Pilot—Burns and Delahanty as Yet Unsigned.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—Close judges think that Joe Cantillon pulled off the one best deal in proportion to expense and value received. He got Wild Conroy, and the agile infielder will be just what the doctor ordered.

Be it remembered that Cantillon's problem of last season was at third. Unglaub could hit, but couldn't field much; Shipke could field, and couldn't hit. Conroy can do both, and can also travel round the sacks in gorgeous fashion.

Will Strengthen Third. He will fortify the third corner, and also fill his place in the batting order. While Conroy can play first unless Freeman comes up strongly with the stick.

"The deal is a good one for both my team and New York," said Cantillon. "Elberfeld and Conroy couldn't get along at New York together, and one or the other had to go. I needed one of the two, and didn't care which I got, as I consider them equally valuable."

"I don't expect to make any more deals unless some one forces some good material on me."

Cleveland After Burns. "Cleveland tried to get Bill Burns, and offered me some very estimable lemons. As things now stand, I am perfectly satisfied."

"Walter Johnson? Yes, he's signed. The only man I want who is as yet unsigned are Burns and Delahanty."

"One man I count highly on is Cliff Blankenship. That fellow is a good pitcher, and a swell batsman, and the best base-running catcher in the business. Yes, I'm thoroughly satisfied."

MAY REPLACE BROOKLYN.

Indianapolis Looking for Berth in National League.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Toledo, Ohio, Feb. 18.—Reports here today are that, providing the bill permitting Sunday baseball games in Indiana is passed by the State legislature, the probabilities are that the Brooklyn National League team and franchise will be transferred to Indianapolis, of the American Association circuit, and that Grand Rapids, Mich., Central League, will take Indianapolis' place in the American Association.

Indianapolis is one of the best paying towns in the association without Sunday ball, and if Sunday ball is allowed it certainly could take care of a National League berth.

Grand Rapids, Mich., would be chosen to take its place in this league, because no town in Michigan is represented in the circuit.

DECKER MEETS SEAGER.

Pair to Box in Place of Lowe and Callahan.

The fight between Tommy Lowe and Tim Callahan, which was scheduled for Monday before the Monumental Athletic Club, of Baltimore, has been postponed, and Manager Sommers has book "Kid" Seager and "Dummy" Decker for the main bout.

Decker has been hot on Seager's trail ever since that individual defeated Oscar Martin, and some real good sport should result when the pair come together. Decker has been going at a good clip this season, a defeat by Lowe being his only loss. The bout is creating a lot of interest among the fight fans of Baltimore, and there is every indication that a fair-sized delegation of Washington sports will be on hand to witness the mill.
